SOME OF THE WORLD'S MOST ALLURING WINE REGIONS DOMINATE this week's Wine Spectator Insider, with new releases from California and France, up to 98 points. This is a report of the most exciting wines our editors have discovered in the tasting room in recent weeks.

Classic Cabernets from Napa legends Scarecrow, Schrader and Screaming Eagle deliver quality to match their world-class pedigrees. Grand cru white Burgundies from Ramonet and Louis Latour show remarkable finesse and power. Bold, ageworthy reds from Côte-Rôtie heavyweights Stéphane Ogier and Julien Pilon promise decades of drinking enjoyment. A stunning 18 wines here scored a classic 95 points or higher. Turn to page 4 for the six Hot Wines.

CALIFORNIA Cabernet Sauvignon

TOR

Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley Beckstoffer To Kalon 2014
94 points | $175 | 200 cases made | Red

There's no mistaking the authority and presence of this youngster, which displays all the depth and complexity you might hope for while adding a measure of delicacy. Drink now through 2034.—J.L.

TOR

Cabernet Sauvignon Oakville Tierra Roja Vineyard 2014
94 points | $150 | 216 cases made | Red

Firm, with chewy, extracted dark berry, cedar, licorice and gravelly earth flavors. Engagingly complex and ending with red and black licorice notes. Best from 2021 through 2033.—J.L.
